How to Run a Summer Camp & Make Money

By Kari Berge Brimhall

We've had many camps and classes!

1

How to Start:

List 2 talents or hobbies
that you LOVE

Examples: sports, crafts, sewing, art, photography, etc.

2

Pick one talent and
brainstorm 7-10 activities

Example: Art

7-10 Activities:

- ⦿ Paint wood stuff
- ⦿ Modeling clay
- ⦿ Chalk pastels
- ⦿ Paper Mache
- ⦿ Watercolor
- ⦿ Make jewelry
- ⦿ Make tissue flowers

3 Who is your audience?

Younger ages 5-7

- ⦿ Short attention span
- ⦿ Coordination

Older ages 8-12

- ⦿ Longer attention span
- ⦿ Think deeper
- ⦿ Can do more

4

Where will you hold class?

- Your house? Ask your Mom! Keep class in 1-2 rooms.
- Outside? Where? Keep it safe!
- Rainy Day Plan!

5

Who to invite and How much money?

- It's best to invite friends and family first!
- Ask Mom to help decide price.
- Ask around
 - keep in mind: your prep time, your time in class (including set up and clean up), and any supplies
- How much do babysitters earn an hour in your neighborhood?
 - You should make more than that.
- Remember, it also needs to be affordable!

6

When? Dates and times
Weekly class or week long camp?

Once a week class
1 hour

Week Long Camp
1- 1 ½ hours a Day

Big Questions

Who is your audience?	Where will you hold class?	Who to invite and How Much $?	When? Dates/ times class/ camp ages 8-12	Kitchen & paint in backyard	Neighbors Cost? Ask Mom.	Week camp 10-11:30 a.m. Daily

WARNING

My kids have been tempted to say-"I'll just wing it! I know what I am doing." Don't skip the next step! The details really do matter and make the class more fun for everyone.

No frustrated kids and no frustrated teacher!
